
international travel industry Amtrak News Clippings

Posted by allan thomas - 2009/11/06 08:08

Amtrak in the News Editorials/Opinions/Letters/Blogs Federal Oversight/Agency News Public Transit/Rail Industry News Travel Industry News TODAY'S AMTRAK NEWS CLIPPINGS Amtrak in the News French Firm Beats Amtrak in VRE Bid 10/16/2009 20:21 (The Washington Post) Price, Service Weighed in... VRE recommends new company, Keolis, to operate trains instead of Amtrak 10/17/2009 01:03 (The Free Lance-Star) By KELLY HANNON WOODBRIDGE

international travel industry Amtrak News Clippings

Posted by allan thomas - 2009/11/06 08:08

Amtrak in the News Editorials/Opinions/Letters/Blogs Public Transit/Rail Industry News Travel Industry News TODAY'S AMTRAK NEWS CLIPPINGS Amtrak in the News Amtrak celebrates 35 years in Port Huron 10/21/2009 09:43 (Port Huron Times Herald) Rain showers didn't stop area residents from celebrating the 35th anniversary of Amtrak in Port Huron this morning. Amtrak's Blue Water line through Flint marks 35th anniversary 10/21/2009 09:41 (Flint Journal) There have been moments when it wasn't clear whether Amtrak's Blue Water passenger train would still be rolling through Flint, Port Huron and Chicago 35 years after the service started. All Aboard! Train leaves Flint Amtrak station on time on 35th anniversary of Blue Water route to Chicago 10/21/2009 09:38 (Flint Journal) Bonnie Ramsdall had never ridden in a train before. Redskins Train On Amtrak! 10/21/2009 02:39 (Washington Redskins) Earlier this season, when the Washington Redskins traveled to New York for their season-opening game against the New York Giants, they passed up their charter plane and chose Amtrak® instead. Amtrak train remains in Williston after being hit by semitrailer 10/21/2009 10:19 (Williston Herald) An Amtrak passenger train from Chicago to Seattle is stopped in Williston after being struck by a semitrailer at 11:10 a.m. Tuesday morning. Amtrak's Point Defiance Bypass worries Lakewood 10/21/2009 10:17 (Tacoma News Tribune) Choked by congestion, the Tillicum neighborhood in Lakewood becomes a stalled parade of cars every rush hour. Amtrak considers local service boost 10/21/2009 00:03 (The Tribune Democrat) JOHNSTOWN — For the past five years, only two passenger trains have stopped at Johnstown's station each day. And in Somerset County, Rockwood has been without passenger-rail service since 1971. Florida East Coast Railway Studied for Potential Intercity and Commuter Services 10/20/2009 20:00 (The Transport Politic) October 20, 2009 » State applies for stimulus funds to connect Jacksonville and Miami; a Miami-West Palm Beach local service also possible. In addition to submitting an application for $2. Editorials/Opinions/Letters/Blogs Dan Walters: Take bullet train claims with grain of salt 10/21/2009 06:05 (SanluisObispo.com) Ironically or perhaps prophetically the California High Speed Rail Authority's Web site bolsters the economic viability of a proposed statewide bullet train system by quoting an official of Lehman Brothers. Public Transit/Rail Industry News INTERVIEW - Terex CEO backs Oberstar transport bill 10/21/2009 04:53 (ARI) *Infrastructure woes, unemployment require extra spending *Says Oberstar bill would create 540,000 jobs annually (CHICAGO, Illinois) - The top executive of Terex Corp , the world's third-largest maker of construction and mining equipment, criticized the Obama administration on Monday for failing to back a... HK approves $11b China rail link 10/21/2009 04:45 (Straits Times (Breaking News)) HONG KONG - HONG KONG has approved a controversial US$8.4 billion (S$11.71 billion) high-speed rail link with the mainland, an official said Wednesday, part of a bid to boost ties with its cross-border neighbour. Maybe This Time 10/21/2009 02:36 (National Trust For Historic Preservation) Can Detroit stand another heartbreaker? After years of losing landmarks, the city is once again trying to rescue the crumbling railroad depot known as Michigan Central Station, closed for 21 years. Crist Unsure Tri-Rail Would Roll in Special Session 10/21/2009 01:26 (The Jacksonville Observer) Backers of the existing South Florida commuter train Tri-Rail may be hoping a proposed special session to deal with rail issues will give them an opportunity to get financial assistance from the state for the beleaguered system, but Gov. The Political Climate That Makes Transportation Reform Run 10/20/2009 16:06 (StreetsBlog) on October 20, 2009 When House transportation committee chairman Jim Oberstar (D-MN) recently accused his colleagues of lacking the political will to pursue long-term reform of infrastructure policy, he wasn't simply employing a D. Travel Industry News AirTran posts 3Q profit of $10.4 million 10/21/2009 07:52 (Bay News 9) By HARRY R. WEBER ATLANTA (AP)
